FRIDAY EVENING, JANUARY 15.

TREATY WITH HAWAII.—At a recent session of the Cabinet the proposed reciprocity treaty with the Hawaiian Islands was discussed at some length, and very favorably. The propositions made by the Hawaiian commissioners will, it is expected, be presented to the Senate at an early day in the form of a treaty. If adopted, the treaty will admit free of duty all low grade sugars not above No. 18, molasses, tallow, coffee, hides, skins, metador syrups of molasses, arrow root, pulu, tropical fruits, raw cotton, seeds, plants, trees, castor oil, sandal, koakow and other ornamental works. The total value of those articles imported into the United States from the Islands last year amounted to a million and a quarter dollars. Under the present tariff coffee, hides and skins are admitted free of duty. The Islands are to admit from the United States, free of duty, agricultural implements, lime, bricks, cement, lumber, stationery, cotton, iron, woolen and wooden manufactures, which include most all articles at present shipped to the Islands. The value of these articles shipped last year was one million dollars.

"A HOAX."—The Martinsburg (W. Va.) Independent says: "The Baltimore papers of yesterday contained a huge hoax in the shape of a telegram purporting to be from one H. W. Brazee, U. S. Commissioner at Charleston, to President Grant, and using the following language: 'Send troops here at once. Not a single negro is allowed to take his seat. The utmost anarchy prevails. What must I do?' 'The truth is there is no such Commissioner as Brazee. Not a single negro has been elected to the Legislature, and that august body does not meet until to-day. Some of the boys have been perpetrating a huge j. k.'"

Alexandria Gazette

1875.

THE ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER has already entered upon the last quarter of a century of its existence. Few newspapers in the country are its seniors. During all this period its prominent object has been to advance the interests of the people of whose life it is the daily chronicle. Its fortunes have been their fortunes; it has shared their prosperity and suffered in their disasters. Its inspiration has been the desire to forward the best interests of the community in which it is located, and its own prosperity is, as it has been purposely made, inseparable from that of the community that it aims to represent. When they grow rich it hopes for a reward commensurate with its labors. While they are poor, it expects to work with them and for them, expecting to make their success the measure of its own.

The past of the Gazette is offered as an index of its future. It has never failed to avail itself promptly of all the improvements which come with the greater growth and more extended experience of journalism.

The Gazette means to be the newspaper of Virginia.

It will furnish daily a complete account, with superfluous only lopped away, of all the current news of the world.

As the interests of the people mainly centre at home, no pains will be spared to chronicle all matters occurring in the city and neighborhood, carefully excluding unseemly expressions or gross narrative as unfit for a journal that is treasured at many thousand hearthstones of Virginia.

Special attention will be devoted to presenting, as well from original sources of information as from its exchanges, the news of Virginia.

Its contiguity to Washington gives the Gazette an early precedence over all the journals of the State in intelligence of the operations of the General Government, now of such vital importance to the people of the South. The proceedings of Congress will be regularly reported in succinct form for its columns, but all matters of especial interest in Virginia will be given in detail.

From the State Capital it will receive early and accurate accounts of the proceedings of the General Assembly and of all the operations of the State government likely to interest the people.

In its commercial columns the especial feature will be promptness and accuracy. The farmers, drovers and commercial people of the State know they may depend upon the Gazette.

Early and reliable reports of the Grain, Cattle, Grocery and other Markets will be furnished, and the prices and position of the stocks, which are the subjects of business transactions in this section of the country, carefully quoted.

The continual favors of those who have once used the Gazette as an advertising medium is a warrant for saying that it pays to advertise in its columns.

The Montpelier Female Humane Association, chartered by the Legislature of Virginia and the Circuit Court of Orange county, proposes, by a series of Grand Gift Certificates, to establish and endow a 'Home for the Old, Infirm and Destitute Ladies of Virginia.' At Montpelier, the former residence of President J. Madison. The Association is under the control of a board of trustees, six of whom are elected annually by the stockholders and two appointed by the Governor of Virginia.

Governor's Office, Richmond, July 3, '74. It affords me pleasure to say that I am well acquainted with a large majority of the officers of the Montpelier Female Humane Association who reside in the vicinity of my home, and attest their intelligence and their worth and high reputation as gentlemen, as well as the public confidence, influence and substantial means liberally represented among them.

Alexandria, Va., July 8th, 1874. My personal acquaintance with a majority of the gentlemen controlling the Montpelier Female Humane Association, and the reputation of all of them enables me to commend them as fully entitled to the confidence of the public. No act or representation inconsistent with honor and integrity need be apprehended in the conduct or representations of these gentlemen.

R. W. HUGHES,
U. S. Judge East. Dis. of Va.
